

Izic Copier

9th Grade Remarkable Raptor

March 2023

Izic has been selected as one of the 9th Grade Remarkable Raptors for March. Here's what some teachers have to say about him.

"Izic is such a fun human being to have in class! He is always so upbeat and excited about anything we are doing in class. He has an infectious personality that really does uplift everyone around him. I'm so glad I got to teach Izic this year!" - Mrs. Bly

"Izic is a very selfless person who is always willing to help me out even though I don't teach him. It's been fun to watch him develop his talents in our Performing Arts program. He's learned great skills or hard work, leadership, and service. He will go far!" - Mrs. Worwood

"Izic is an awesome choice! I love his enthusiasm for life. He has the ability to include just about anyone into his group. I love when he comes into class excited to share news with me like getting roles in the school play or telling me about the computer chip he got for Christmas and building his own device. He strives to be positive and is a great leader among his friends without excluding them for differences." - Ms. Roberds

"Everyone feels like they are Izic's best friend because Izic makes everyone feel important, included, and smart. I love having Izic in class. He is a born natural leader: always creative, fun, and with a myriad of silly voices to boot!" - Ms. Baugh

"Izic is incredible! The acting! The singing! The projection! The drama! The friendliness! He is a joy to work with on and off stage. I would recommend him to any theater production ever! I am always left nothing but impressed by Izic Copier, and I am sure his friends, teachers, and future employers and colleagues will say the same." - Mrs. Parker

"Izic is such a fun kid to have in class! One of my favorite students. He has a great sense of humor and his positive, enthusiastic attitude towards life makes others around him feel like they belong. Izic is very outgoing and is a talented actor. He really is a remarkable young man." - Coach Names

"Izic has a phenomenal personality and an ability to energize an entire room. He has personally swayed the entire dynamic of the class from dull to excitement about math on more than one occasion. He works well with his peers and he has a desire to finish what he starts. I appreciate all the effort he puts into asking questions when he's lost on a topic. Izic will keep asking until he finally understands." - Mrs. Johnson

“Izic is a wonderful student! I miss seeing him every day in Science but I'm so grateful I was able to teach him in 8th grade. Izic is kind, enthusiastic, outgoing, and just an awesome person. I could always count on Izic to participate and share his thoughts. He is so intelligent and I know he will do great things in life! We're all so proud of you, Izic!” - Mrs. Westbrook

“Izic is a great student. He is always kind and energetic. I love when he brings his passion for acting into English class. He makes reading more engaging and enjoyable for his peers by reading in fun voices.” - Ms. Blandford

“Even from before he was in my class, Izic has been incredibly kind in every interaction I've had with him. In class, he does a great job staying engaged while also helping to lighten the mood and help make geography fun. He's a great addition to my class and to the school!” - Mr. Melville

Mariah Chavez

8th Grade Remarkable Raptor

March 2023

The Eighth grade team choice for Terrific Kid is Mariah Chavez. This letter will highlight a few of her many skills that we have seen her develop. Mariah is very talented in the arts. She takes time to use contrast shading, excellent textures, and quality watercolors. She is also willing to help clean up art disasters, even when she didn't create them. She consistently works well with others and stays focused. One of her assignments was on a Greek word that showed her integration of learning.

In music Ms. Parker said "Mariah is AMAZING!!!!!!! Always willing to help, and for sure a leader inside and outside the classroom. She participates regularly, and is always friendly."

In English, Ms. Blanford said, "I love Mariah! She is so kind and soft spoken. She is always smiling and is such a hardworking student."

Ms. Roberts made this comment, "Mariah is a great choice! She seems to be very aware of her work and is concerned about doing her best. She reaches out for help when she needs it. She is respectful in class and is kind to others."

Mrs. Westbrook added her positive comments, "Mariah is such a great student. I have loved having her in Science! She is smart, kind, and mature. She is a great example to her peers and I know she will do great things in life."

In conclusion, Mariah is well rounded and a great student to work with. Riverview is lucky to work with her and see her progress.

Jason Stanger

7th Grade Remarkable Raptor

March 2023

The 7th grade team has nominated Jason Stanger as one the Remarkable Raptors for March. Jason has been recognized for working hard in each of his classes, coming to class with a great attitude, and going above and beyond what is asked to thrive in his classes. Jason's teachers think he is fantastic and have said the following about him:

"Jason is so great in science. He is kind, works hard, and never complains. I love having him in class. He is amazing at working his hardest in class."

"Jason is so awesome to have in class! He participates, always goes above and beyond on his work, and is the definition of kind. I love getting to see him interact with his peers and he knows how to keep us laughing. I love how he takes pride in his work and gets excited about whatever topic we're learning. Jason truly is a remarkable raptor!"

"Jason is always willing to help others, and he asks good questions. You know that he understands the concepts when he is through. He is always willing to try new techniques and it is great to have him in class."

"Jason is phenomenal! I love his excitement and enthusiasm for learning music. He is a wonderful student leader in our band. He is kind, and thoughtful of others. He speaks up when he notices others are struggling, and is willing to help. He works hard, and I am so grateful to have him in class."

"Jason is always attentive and involved in math class. He is also helpful when other students are struggling with the concepts."

"Jason is such a great young man! He is kind to others, respectful to everyone, and he is always looking to do the right thing and help whenever possible. I really enjoyed having Jason in P.E. last semester.

"Jason is a fantastic student and I love having him in health class. He is always going above and beyond the basic understanding and works hard to apply the skills into his own life. He works wonderfully with everyone and makes people feel comfortable to learn and grow in health class, which is crucial. He's overall just a joy to have in class."

Jason has made a great influence on everyone here at Riverview and we look forward to seeing what other "remarkable" impacts he will make during his time here.

Winston Jewkes

8th Grade Remarkable Raptor

March 2023

Congrats to our 8th grade Remarkable Raptor, Winston Jewkes. Here are comments from some of his teachers:

Winston has been a joy to have in math class this year. He is an attentive student, and always helps other students. - Mrs. Williams

Winston is an awesome mathematician. He brings a fun energy to the room and he's remarkable at completing the work assigned to him. - Mrs. Johnson

Winston Jewkes is a Remarkable Raptor indeed! He is a bright student and is always engaged in what we are learning. He asks great questions and always has great comments to add to our class discussion. He is kind to others and works with others effortlessly and productively. Winston is respectful and always pleasant. He always shows up with a smile and is ready to learn. Thanks for making our class a great place to be and to learn! - Mrs. Bigler

I had Winston last year in English. Winston was always looking to improve and often took opportunities to resubmit work to show his best. He always brought out the best in others and was positive and supportive! - Mrs. Baugh

Winston is one of the hardest working students I've met. He does his best to perfect the music, asks excellent questions, and helps others. He has a hilarious sense of humor and knows how to make tough situations better with a joke. Not a day goes by that he doesn't say hello or goodbye as he's dropping off his instrument, he is so kind to others. Winston has all the remarkable qualities that will help him be successful now and in the future. I am so glad to be his teacher! - Mrs. Worwood

Winston is a very kind young man. He is so respectful, polite and always willing to help his peers. He always has a smile on his face and that is SO fantastic to see seventh period! - Mrs. Donovan

Winston is a delightful human! In English class, Winston is always engaged in our lessons - but he does it in such a way that he makes the experience better for everyone in class. Winston is also very funny, and his sense of humor creates such a fun atmosphere. He is a hard worker, and he has certainly earned his academic success. Even though his dad works at "the other junior high," I am thrilled to call Winston a fellow Raptor! - Mrs. Strader

I love having Winston in class. He is such a hard worker. He works well with all of his lab groups. His positive attitude has a great impact on our class. - Mrs. Herrera

Winston is a great student! He is always trying his hardest and adding valuable comments to our discussions in class. He excels when completing all work, especially when working in a group, and does well with motivating and helping out his group so they can be successful. I have really enjoyed having Winston in class! - Mrs. Baker

Maria Steinbach

9th Grade Remarkable Raptor

March 2023

Maria Steinbach is a 9th grade Remarkable Raptor. Here are some of the fun comments coming from her teachers:

Maria is such a great student. She is hardworking and dedicated to both school and hockey. For her age, she is exceptionally mature. All around her teachers agree she is a self-motivated learner that helps improve the classroom environment. Maria never fails to help where needed, whether it be volunteering, working with her peers, or making someone laugh. She is truly a joy to be around! – Mrs. Blandford

“Maria is kind, mature, hardworking, and so talented. I loved being her science teacher last year and appreciated her enthusiasm and participation. This year, I have loved seeing her play for the Murray Hockey team. She is so tough!! Maria is such a great example to her peers and I know she will continue to do great things in the future.” - Mrs. Westbrook

“Maria is always so spunky and has the funniest comments. She is such a hard worker and always asks questions if she needs clarification. I love having her in class and I'm so glad I got to teach her this year!” - Mrs. Bly

“Maria has taken every class I offer and always does some of the best work. She listens to instructions and then executes those instructions perfectly.” - Mr. Johnston

“Maria is awesome to have in class!” - Mr. Melville

“Maria possesses great self-advocate skills and isn't afraid to speak up and ask for clarification. Her timely questions are often useful in helping others learn. She has helped build community in our class by being inclusive and frequently working with a wide range of students and not just choosing friends. She keeps a busy schedule with her hockey team, yet she is responsible and works hard to be on top of her work even when she misses class. Maria is a great asset to our class community and our school!” - Mrs. Bigler

Aubrey Clayton

7th Grade Remarkable Raptor

March 2023

Aubrey Clayton is a shining example of a stellar student. She is always positive and never fails to say thank you as she's leaving class. She is kind and friendly to everyone around her and faces trials with positivity. Aubrey is on time, prepared, and willing to try her hardest in class and I appreciate her dedication to her schoolwork. I am thankful for the example she is to the students around her.

Aubrey is always smiling and she goes out of her way to say thank you. She is just a joyful person to have in class.

Aubrey is a delight to have in health class! She asks wonderful questions, takes time to ponder and apply the concepts we learn, and always gives it her all. I know that I can count on her to give it her all and work well with others. I look forward to seeing her every day!

Aubrey is a joy to have in class. She is always working hard and doing her best work. Aubrey is always willing to help and work with other students. Her positive attitude and approach to school is amazing! I have really enjoyed having Aubrey in my class this year!

I love having Aubrey in my class! She goes above and beyond, always participates, and has a beaming attitude. I can't imagine a better person to represent our school. She is sweet, hardworking, always asks great questions, and has such a compassionate heart. Aubrey, thank you for being such a great part of my day!

Aubrey is so supportive of her classmates. She works hard to learn music and helps others around her. Her smile is infectious, and she checks on others to see if they're ok. I love being her teacher!

Aubrey is an amazing student and is such an essential part of allowing other students to increase their knowledge. Aubrey always pays attention during the lesson, asks inquisitive questions, and helps other students if necessary.

Aubrey is talented in the arts and always treated other students with respect. She was wonderful to work with and she always took time to clean up as well, definitely "remarkable".

Aubrey is kind, creative, and caring! Her projects for class are always unique and entertaining, and in theatre she always had the best ideas! She is responsible and fun!!
